CAMP INFORMATION

Chris Lamb Coaching History

Shocker head coach Chris Lamb will begin his 18th season at Wichita State in 2017. Lamb has led the Shockers to six Missouri Valley Conference regular-season titles, four MVC Tournament titles and 10 NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2012, he guided the Shockers to their first Sweet 16 in school history. In 2008, the team finished 29-0 in the regular-season, the first undefeated regular-season in school history. For his efforts, he earned MVC Coach-of-the-Year honors. He led the Shockers to the MVC title in 2007 and to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and back-to-back MVC titles in 2004 and 2005 and earned MVC Coach-of-the-Year honors all three of those seasons. In 2004, he guided WSU to its first NCAA Tournament where the team won its first-ever tourney match. Lamb has coached 31 all-MVC players, five MVC Players-of-the-Year, two MVC Freshmen-of-the-Year, three MVC Liberos-of-the-Year and 33 academic all-conference athletes at Wichita State in his 17 seasons.

Camp Staff

The staff will include Wichita State staff as well as high level club and high school coaches and current and former Wichita State volleyball players.
